Anglo Portuguese Mortgages are pioneers when it comes to non-resident mortgage schemes and their work with banks in Portugal has helped 1,000s of people buy their dream holiday home in the Algarve.

Anglo Portuguese Mortgages operate as part of the Corporate & Commercial Group of Companies alongside Corporate & Commercial Finance and Corporate & Commercial Estates. With over 20

Corporate & Commercial Group work with 15 banks. "We're completely independent, so clients know we can recommend the best bank to suit their needs. We work closely with the banks to create pre-packaged mortgages suited to non-resident buyers." Their strong relationship with banks has made it possible for them to negotiate favorable terms for buyers.

years experience in property financing, Clive is well equipped to lead Corporate & Commercial Group and its subsidiaries.

Clive's wife, Helen Statham, is executive director of Anglo Portuguese Mortgages and its UK team. Helen is committed to making life easier for foreign house-buyers and helps with all aspects of the buying process in what would otherwise be a daunting amount of red tape. "In fact," says Helen, "It's in part thanks to our efforts that the mortgage applications and bank account forms are now available bilingually. It's just one way we have tried to help finesse the system."

made Anglo Portuguese Mortgages the largest independent providers of non-resident mortgages. The mortgage schemes available through Anglo Portuguese Mortgages have made it possible for Corporate & Commercial Estates to assist in the marketing of properties this year on special terms.

Corporate and Commercial Group of Companies are expanding their activities to other parts of Portugal as well as Madeira and Cape Verde. They divide their time between Portugal and England and have an office in England with a dedicated staff. Peter, the eldest son, has recently joined the business to expand the considerable opportunities being presented to the group.
